

Community Notes Feb 19 2019

BOHEMIAN CORRIDOR BUSINESS ALLIANCE is forming action plans for enhancing commerce and infrastructure along the Bohemian ten-mile corridor. Meeting at OCA on third Wednesdays at 4 p.m., discussions continue regarding benefits and challenges of future Farmer's Markets at the current location.

HARMONDY UNION SCHOOL DISTRICT will be presenting a production of Willy Wonka March 1,2,8,9, at 6 p.m. and March 10 at 2 p.m. Admission is $5 for Children, $10 adults.

KOWS has a new studio location in Santa Rosa on 7th Street. The Studio phone number is 755-9250. Broadcast of a League of Women Forum on the vote for March 5 concerning the Palm Drive Acquisition can be heard at kows92-5.org/news/

OCCIDENTAL ARTS AND ECOLOGY CENTER will sponsor a lecture series by Water Institute Co-Director Kate Lundquist on the campaign to "Bring Back the Beaver" starting in Oregon this month and then March 18 at the Sonoma County Library in Santa Rosa.

OCCIDENTAL CENTER FOR THE ARTS is celebrating Black History Month with an exhibition of an historical collection of Raynetta James and the exhibition of original juried works of art by local artists at the Gallery through February 24th. On February 23rd there will be a Gospel Brunch with music by the Joyful Noise Gospel Singers and food by Saucy Mama from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. in the auditorium.

OCCIDENTAL COMMUNITY CENTER ADVISORY COUNCIL awaits word due on the 22nd for possible funding by the Bothin Foundation for improvements to the gymnasium floor.

OCCIDENTAL COMMUNITY SERVICE DISTRICT is working with the recently formed Fire Safe Occidental citizen's group to explore ways to mitigate fire danger and facilitate evacuation during the up-coming fire season.

SALMON CREEK WATERSHED COUNCIL is delivering Welcome Packets to new residents in the area. These guides show maps and references to services available to newcomers.

COUNTY OCCIDENTAL HEALTH CENTER is offering volunteer opportunities at all West County Centers. Visit www.volunteermatch.org/search/org970415.jsp or call 823-3201 Ext.6454 to see what is available.

YMCA schedules and other Occidental Community Center activities schedules can now be viewed on the Google Calendar at www.occidental-ca.org.

Community Notes Jan 15 2019

BOHEMIAN CORRIDOR meeting scheduled for January 9th was postponed and will meet again at a future date to be announced.

HARMONY UNION SCHOOL has notified the public that a Citizens' Oversight Committee has been established to oversee expenditures of Measure C bond funds. Applications are being accepted. Winter enrichment classes have started in Nature Journaling and Chess at the Y. "Students of Salmon Creek School" art show will be up January 18-27 at the OCA Art Gallery.

KOWS 92.5 FM has a five star rating. It welcomes you to submit Public Service Announcements airing between one and two per day to let the public know about your organization or event. Look online for PSA Guidelines and Applications. The studios will be relocating from Sebastopol's United Methodist Church at the end of January.

OCCIDENTAL ARTS AND ECOLOGY CENTER is taking enrollments for their 2019 Eco-literacy Courses in Permaculture Design and Garden Teacher Trainings. In addition staff will be traveling to participate at conferences in Davis and Pacific Grove.

OCCIDENTAL CENTER FOR THE ARTS will host the HUSD Student Art Show until January 27th. There is a call for entries to Black History Month Art Exhibition opening January 29th. The auditorium will present "Words and Music" with Don Henry, Laurie Lewis, Claudia Russell, and Nina Gerber January 18th, and on the 25th it will present a free screening of three short films documenting timely issues with presenting speaker Cannes award- winning filmmaker Rob Nilsson.

OCCIDENTAL COMMUNITY CENTER ADVISORY COUNCIL awaits word of possible funding award from the Bothin Foundation and is reviewing the next phase of improvements to the Community Center facility. Gazette columnist Gino Gaffney attended and interviewed council representatives.

OCCIDENTAL COMMUNITY COUNCIL will meet January 19th to evaluate the December Craft Faire. Proceeds will be distributed in updated budget discussions. 2019 community projects will be proposed.

OCCIDENTAL COMMUNITY CHOIR still glows with the community support it received at its five sold-out winter concerts. Rehearsals for spring concerts have begun, and 40th anniversary special events are being planned. Announcements for these April events will follow.

OCCIDENTAL COMMUNITY SERVICE DISTRICT is budgeting to replace another 20 old water meters out of the 87 remaining (total of 107 meters). It is suspected an increased water loss of 16.5% (or 1.64 gallons per minute) is due to old meters. Camp Meeker VFD representatives spoke of a plan to consolidate with Occidental VFD by being annexed. Discussions continue.

SALMON CREEK WATERSHED COUNCIL continues to monitor rain data and stream water data. Its website holds a wealth of resource information for watershed residents and citizen scientists.

WEST COUNTY OCCIDENTAL HEALTH CENTER is offering volunteer opportunities at all West County Health Centers. Visit www.volunteermatch.org/search/org970415.jsp or call 823-3201 Ext.6454 to see what is available.

YMCA schedule and other Occidental Community Center schedules can now be viewed on the Google Calendar at www.occidental-ca.org.

Community Notes December 15, 2018

BOHEMIAN CORRIDOR has successfully achieved its first collaborative Holiday weekend with tree lighting, caroling, and retail shopping with extended hours and special holiday treats. Town buzzed all weekend.

HARMONY UNION SCHOOL middle-schooler's are still selling beautiful handcrafted cards for $1.00 each in front of the school office Thursdays from 1: to 1:30. Proceeds go toward framing materials for the January art show at Occident Center for the Arts. Winter Break is from 12/24/18 to 1/7/19.

KOWS has found new studio location on Brown Street in Sebastopol. The move will take place January 2019.

OCCIDENTAL ARTS AND ECOLOGY CENTER volunteers are planting diverse species of oak that are less susceptible to Sudden Oak Death on their 70 acre wildlife preserve. Their Wildlands Stewardship Plan is viewable on line at www.oaec.org.

OCCIDENTAL CENTER FOR THE ARTS Gallery will be featuring "Small Works" through January 13th with many gift items for sale. You are invited to see these exquisite works by local artists. Also now that the Lobby exterior is rain-secure, Volunteers continue to work on the Lobby's interior.

OCCIDENTAL COMMUNITY CENTER ADVISORY COUNCIL will meet with representatives from the Bothin Foundation as a prerequisite for receiving funds to complete its renovation of the Community Center's gymnasium floor.

OCCIDENTAL COMMUNITY COUNCIL will be assessing its 2018 Holiday Craft Faire. Budgeting for donations addressing community needs will follow policies currently in place. New business will be discussed each third Saturday of the month at the Community Center at 10:30 a.m.

OCCIDENTAL COMMUNITY CHOIR is offering a 40 year retrospective show in the OCA Gallery showing photos, Poster Art, props and memorabilia. Resting from 5 sold out shows, members resume rehearsals January 9th.

OCCIDENTAL COMMUNITY SERVICE DISTRICT Fire Chief Lunardi assisted at the Fire Safe Occidental meeting held Thursday Dec. 13th at St. Philip Parrish Hall. Over 160 local residents attended to learn what can be done to prepare for next year's fire season. FSO will be holding trainings to be announced.

SALMON CREEK WATERSHED COUNCIL Welcome Packet is available online at the Community Council website www.occidental-ca.org and at the Watershed website www.salmoncreekwater.org.

WEST COUNTY OCCIDENTAL HEALTH CENTER is offering volunteer opportunities at all West County Health Centers. To see what is available, go to www.volunteermatch.org/search/org970415.jsp or call 823-3201 Ext.6454.

YMCA schedule and other Occidental Community Center schedules can now be viewed at www.occidental-ca.org calendar.