

BOHEMIAN CORRIDOR BUSINESS ALLIANCE meets today with Supervisor Lynda Hopkins at the Occidental Center For the Arts auditorium at 3:30 p.m. to discuss a "punch list" of town needs left by the County sidewalk improvement project.

FAMILY Y will continue to offer classes as posted on Events Calendar at the Community Center www.occidental-ca.org Rentals for the facility may be filled in online or by phoning 874-2242

FIRE SAFE OCCIDENTAL will hold a community-wide meeting on the 19th 3-5 p.m.(location TBA) to update residents on best strategies and practices for fire safety. The Committees Wildfire Prevention/Evacuation meet tonight 7 p.m. at the Fire Hall.

HARMONY UNION SCHOOL DISTRICT's 8th graders are on a trip to San Francisco until the 18th. After school programs will be replaced by various summer camps. For a complete listing e-mail Harmony Union School District <info@harmonyusd.org> An ice cream social open house will be May 23rd on campus. 5/30 is the Young Writers' Showcase. The last day of school is June 4. KOWS will have a fundraiser on May 25th at 5 p.m. at Three Disciples Brewing in Santa Rosa located at 501 Mendocino Ave. with live music by Matthew Monfort and Nate Lopez and more.

OCCIDENTAL ARTS AND ECOLOGY CENTER is taking applications for positions for administrative office manager (full-time) and kitchen prep/steward (6-18 hours/week). <oaec@oaec.org> or phone 874-1557

OCCIDENTAL CENTER FOR THE ARTS Gallery has a call out to artists for "Abstractions" Exhibit starting May 21 to July 21 . The Auditorium will feature Moonalice! band May 24th at 7:30 p.m. Tickets are $15 advance with Brown Paper Tickets or $20 at the door.

OCCIDENTAL COMMUNITY CENTER ADVISORY COUNCIL continues to field questions from the public about the Center. The new gym floor will be installed May 20th and be re-opened for use May 26th. The Council meets every first Thursday at 6:30 p.m. at the Center to plan for future improvements at the Center. Next meeting is June 6th.

OCCIDENTAL COMMUNITY CHOIR has completed its successful 40th Anniversary Concert Series. It received enough donations to purchase its first set of new risers for the singers.

Summer composition classes will be held as planning for next winter's concerts begin.

OCCIDENTAL COMMUNITY COUNCIL will discuss projects it would like to fund in the community. Possible town clean up and signage projects for downtown were proposed.

OCCIDENTAL COMMUNITY FARMERS' MARKET plans to reopen June 7th and will be run by members of the community. To volunteer or donate to the project, go to occidentalcommunityfarmersmkt@gmail.com.

OCCIDENTAL COMMUNITY SERVICE DISTRICT heard proposals for charging stations to be placed downtown from Carol Schmitt in March. In April the service district received County funds to perform fire inspections. As fire season approaches, fire safety is the main issue.

SALMON CREEK WATERSHED COUNCIL will be posting results from last season's creek monitoring to be ready to monitor creeks at the end of summer. Welcome Packets continue to be distributed to new residents to inform them about the watershed area.

WEST COUNTY HEALTH CENTER conducted a community survey of 489 respondents considering the effectiveness of the its West County Health Centers. While effectiveness ratings were above average, survey results offered some improvement recommendations.